

United States District Court
Northern District of Texas

Notice of Return of Discovery Materials

The attached or enclosed discovery materials you submitted to the United States District Clerk are being returned to you inasmuch as the Clerk does not accept discovery materials for filing except in the following events as provided by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5(d) or Local Civil Rule 5.2:

_____ Fed.R.Civ.P. 5(d)    The presiding judge has ordered that the discovery materials be filed.
(Attach the order so directing.)

_____ LR 5.2(c)            The discovery materials relate to a discovery proceeding identified by an attached motion and are comprised of only the portions of the discovery materials in dispute.

_____ LR 5.2(d)            The discovery materials are necessary for consideration of a pretrial motion, and only the portions of the discovery materials on which the party relies to support or oppose the motion are offered for filing.

If one or more of the exceptions in this notice applies, please check on the appropriate line and return this notice and the discovery materials you wish to have filed to the Clerk's Office.
