PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

WARNING: This is an official Order from the Court. It affects your rights. Read this Order immediately and carefully. If you do not understand it, contact a lawyer for help.

Your spouse has filed a Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation with the Court. This Order is made at the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Arizona in Maricopa County. This Order has the same force and effect as an Order signed by the Judge. You and your spouse must obey this order. This Order may be enforced by any remedy available under the law, including an order for contempt of court. To help you understand this Order, we have explained this Order. Read the explanation and then read the statute itself. If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer for help.

EXPLANATION: (What does this Order mean to you?)

1. ACTIONS FORBIDDEN BY THIS ORDER: From the time the Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation is filed with the Court, until the Judge signs the Decree, or until further Order of the Court, both the Petitioner and the Respondent shall not do any of the following things:
 - X You may not hide earnings or community property from your spouse, AND
 - X You may not take out a loan on the community property, AND
 - X You may not sell the community property or give it away to someone, UNLESS you have the written permission of your spouse or written permission from the Court. The law allows for situations in

- X You may not sell the community property or give it away to someone, UNLESS you have the written permission of your spouse or written permission from the Court. The law allows for situations in which you may need to transfer joint or community property as part of the everyday running of a business, or that sometimes the sale of community property is necessary to meet necessities of life, such as food, shelter, or clothing, or court fees and attorney fees associated with this action. If this applies to you, you should see a lawyer for help, AND
- X Do not harass or bother your spouse or the children, AND
- X Do not physically abuse or threaten your spouse or the children, AND
- X Do not take the children, common to your marriage, out of the State of Arizona for any reasons, without a written agreement between you and your spouse or a Court Order, before you take the children out of the State.
- X Do not remove or cause to be removed the other party or the children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. That both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: Arizona Law, A.R.S. 25-315(A) provides:

BOTH PARTIES ARE ENJOINED FROM:

- 1 (a) RESTRICTIONS ON PROPERTY OF THE MARRIAGE: Transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common or community property of the parties except if related to the usual course of business, the necessities of life or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with an action filed under this article, without the written consent of the parties or the permission of the Court.
- 1(b) REQUIREMENTS OF BEHAVIOR: Molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace of or committing an assault or battery on the person of the other party or any natural or adopted child of the parties.
- 1(c) RESTRICTIONS ABOUT YOUR CHILDREN: Removing any natural or adopted child of the parties then residing in Arizona from the jurisdiction of the Court without the prior written consent of the parties or the permission of the Court.
- 1(d) RESTRICTIONS ABOUT INSURANCE: Removing or causing to be removed the other party or the children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. That both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.
- 2. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS ORDER: This Order is effective against the person who filed for divorce, annulment, or legal separation (the Petitioner) when the Petition was filed with the Court. It is effective against the other party (the Respondent) when it is served on the other party. This Order shall remain in effect until a final Decree of Dissolution, Legal Separation, or Annulment is filed or the action is dismissed.
- 3. ORDER TO PETITIONER: You must serve a copy of this Order upon the Respondent with a copy of the Petition for Dissolution, Annulment, or Legal Separation, the Summons, and other required court papers.

4. WARNING: This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, the Court may find you in contempt of court. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this Order.
5. LAW ENFORCEMENT: You or your spouse may file a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency. You may obtain a certified copy from the Clerk of the Court that issued this Order. If you are the person that brought this action, you must also file evidence with the law enforcement agency that this order was served on your spouse.
