The Court may waive the assessment and approval of the potential adoptive parent(s) in cases involving kinship or custodial adoption or may determine and order what kind of information or written report it deems necessary, including an abbreviated home study or home evaluation. The Court may proceed to finalize such adoptive placement upon finding that the placement is in the best interests of the child.

2. The child has been in the physical custody of the Petitioner(s) for over one year.

3. A home study or other assessment and approval in this case is unnecessary because:

4. A current criminal records check and a current check of the Central Registry records for each Petitioner is attached to the Petition for Adoption in this case.

Petitioner(s), being first duly sworn, upon oath, state(s) that they have read the foregoing Motion and know(s) the contents thereof, and the same are true.
