Sec. 2-55. Retirement of Attorney

Written notice of retirement from the practice of law, pursuant to the provisions of General Statutes § 51-81b, shall not constitute removal from the bar or the roll of attorneys, but it shall be noted on the roll of attorneys kept by the clerk in Hartford county who shall notify the statewide bar counsel of such retirement. The notice shall include the attorney's juris number and be filed in triplicate with such clerk. Upon the filing of such notice, the attorney shall no longer be eligible to practice law as an attorney admitted in the state of Connecticut. Retirement may be revoked at any time upon written notice to the clerk for Hartford county and the statewide bar counsel. Disciplinary proceedings against an attorney shall not be stayed or terminated on account of the attorney's retirement from the practice of law.
