(Waiver of Costs for Indigent Party), the applicant and the affiant attesting to the applicant's inability to pay the costs of court, may be required to appear before the Judge assigned the case so that the Court may properly comply with C.C.P. art. 5183(2) by inquiring into the facts and satisfying itself that the applicant is entitled to the privilege.

Section 2. Should counsel for any litigant who has been permitted to prosecute or defend in forma pauperis desire to take action in the cause which would increase the expense over and above those normally attendant to trial and appeal, such as, but not limited to, the taking of depositions to be used in lieu of a witness' testimony or otherwise, counsel shall first present to the judge presiding over the Division to which the case was allotted, a motion which shall be tried contradictorily with the adverse party(ies) to the end that the actual necessity for same may be determined. In the further event that an applicant does not within fifteen (15) days from date of denial seek a hearing thereof, the proceeding may be dismissed without prejudice upon ex parte motion of any party at interest.
