I understand this Objection must be filed in the District Court within 15 days from the entry of the Order of the Case Management Officer. If I do not file an objection within 15 days, I will have waived my right to object to the Order and waived my right to appeal the Order in accordance with M.R. Civ. P. 76D. I understand that a copy of this Objection must be sent to the other party, or to their attorney if represented.

I understand a Judge will review the record established before the Case Management Officer with or without a hearing and may adopt, modify or reject the Order, may set the matter for further hearing before a Judge or Case Management Officer, or may recommit it to the Case Management Officer with instructions.

I understand the Case Management Officer's Order relating to the care, custody and support of the minor child(ren) or to the separate support or personal liberty of a person is effective when entered on the docket and remains in effect, despite this Objection, until modified or rejected by a Judge.
