ATTENTION BENEFICIALLY INTERESTED PARTIES

This Account may be approved by the probate court unless a written objection, containing the specific factual or legal basis for the objection, is filed within 30 days after the date the Account is filed in the probate court. Failure to file an objection may forfeit your right to a hearing concerning the Account or your objection, and the probate court may then act without a hearing or any further notice to you.

Probate Court Rule 49E. The account shall show significant transactions that do not affect the amount for which the fiduciary is accountable.

- 1. The schedule listing such transactions shall consist of an information schedule, which shall be set forth at the end of the other schedules required in an account, setting forth each transaction by a separate number.
- 2. All changes in investments not reflected as gains or losses reported on other schedules of receipts shall be listed. These would include, but not be limited to, stock dividends; stock splits; changes in name; exchanges; or reorganizations.
- 3. All new investments made within the accounting period, and in hand at the close thereof, shall be noted on the schedules of assets on hand at the close of the accounting period. Totally new investments, and increased or additional investments in the same investment as shown on the schedules of assets on hand at the beginning of the account period of the account, shall be separately designated or annotated.
- 4. With regard to book accounts, notes or installment obligations (whether secured or not), detail regarding collections or payments shall be provided to permit reconciliation of the balances shown on schedules of assets on hand at the beginning and the close of the accounting period.
- 5. The fiduciary shall also report on the information schedule the details of any events causing or resulting in a change in the manner, method or course of the fiduciary's administration. Such events would include, but not be limited to, death of an interim income beneficiary; shifting enjoyment of the income to another beneficiary; death of a remainderman during the course of administering an estate; or a beneficiary reaching a designated age, after which time the beneficiary has a right to mandate partial withdrawals of principal. - Added January 1, 1992. (Rule effective January 1, 1992.)
