

PC-2.13

Receiver

formerly SW-53

R.I.G.L. 33-20-2

This action must be advertised.

Form PC-9.2, Attorney of Record, should be completed and filed with estate records.

This form is the petition of the spouse or next of kin or one or more of creditors to appoint a receiver. If a resident who owns property in this state has disappeared (absent from his/her usual residence with whereabouts unknown of more than one year), and no agent has been appointed, the Probate Court may appoint a Receiver.

- The Receiver collects and takes charge of such property until the fact of death or survival of the absentee is established.
- In the case of death, the Receiver continues until an Executor or Administrator is appointed and qualified.

Before a probate court can appoint a Receiver, it must give at least 30 days' notice by publication in a newspaper published in the state.

The Probate Clerk:

- Mails a copy of the Notice to the last known address of the absentee. (This Notice must be addressed to the absentee).
- Mails a copy of the Notice to all persons who claim an interest in the property, and all heirs-at-law, citing them to appear at a time and place named, to show cause why a Receiver of the property of the absentee should not be appointed.
