OBJECTION TO VENUE

To the Defendants: If you believe that this suit should have been filed in a different city or county, you may file a written request to have the case moved for trial to the general district court of that city or county. To do so, you must do the following:

1. Prepare a written request which contains (a) this court's name, (b) the case number and the "return date" as shown on the first page of the attached form in the top right corner, (c) the names of the Plaintiffs and the names of the defendants, (d) the phrase "I move to object to venue of this case in this court because," followed by the reasons for your objection and the name of the city or county in which you believe the case should be tried, and (e) your signature and mailing address.
2. File the written request in the clerk's office before the trial date (use the mail at your own risk) or give it to the judge when your case is called on the return date. Also send or deliver a copy to plaintiff.
3. If you mail this request to the court, you will be notified of the judge's decision.
