In re:

and

Petitioner,

Respondent.

NO.

FINDINGS/CONCLUSIONS ON PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT
(FNFCL)

I. BASIS

These findings and conclusions are based upon:

- an order of default.
- an agreement of the parties.
- a contested hearing on affidavits only.
- a contested hearing at which testimony was presented by:

II. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

Based on the case record, the court FINDS and CONCLUDES that:

2.1 JURISDICTION.

The court has proper jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action for the reasons that follow:

- There is a Washington Order of Child Support.
- The responding party presently resides in the state of Washington.
- Other:

2.2 INCORPORATED FINDINGS.

The child support worksheet which has been approved by the court

- is attached to these findings
- has been initialed and filed separately

and is incorporated by reference. The Order of Child Support signed by the court on _____ [Date] is incorporated by reference as part of these findings.

2.3 REASONS FOR MODIFICATION.

- The order of child support should not be modified because there has been no substantial change of circumstances and none of the statutory exceptions set forth in RCW 26.09.170 apply.
- The order of child support should be modified because:
 - The previous order was entered more than two years ago and there has been a change in the income of the parents.
 - _____ [Name of Child] is in need of post secondary educational support because the child is in fact dependent and is relying upon the parents for the reasonable necessities of life.
 - _____ [Name of Child] is a dependent adult child and support should be extended beyond his or her 18th birthday.
 - The previous order was entered by default.
 - The action was commenced by DSHS for a child who is receiving public assistance money and modification pursuant to RCW 26.09.170(7) is appropriate.
 - The previous order was entered more than a year ago and:
 - The order works a severe economic hardship.
 - The child has moved to a new age category for support purposes.
 - The child is still in high school and there is a need to extend support beyond the child's 18th birthday to allow the child to complete high school.
 - An automatic adjustment of support should be added consistent with RCW 26.09.100.
 - Either or both parents should be required to maintain or provide health insurance coverage consistent with RCW 26.09.105.
 - There has been the following substantial change of circumstances since the order was entered (explain):
 - Other:

2.4 INCREMENTAL INCREASE (RCW 26.09.170(8)(c)).

- An incremental increase has not been requested.
- An incremental increase will not be ordered because the modification of the obligor's child support obligation is not greater than 30 percent or the change will not cause a significant hardship.
- An incremental increase should be ordered because the modification of the obligor's child support obligation is greater than 30 percent and the change will cause a significant hardship.

2.5 ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS.

- Attorney's fees and costs have not been requested.
- Attorney's fees and costs should not be ordered because:

- Reasonable attorney's fees and costs should be ordered because:

2.6 PAYMENT PLAN.

- Payments should be made to the Washington State Support Registry.
- An alternative payment plan should be ordered because the parties agree to an alternative payment plan and there are reasonable assurances that payments will be made in a regular and timely manner.
