4. I also understand that I have all of the following rights:

- a. To be represented by a lawyer and if I cannot afford to pay for a lawyer, to have one provided at public expense;
- b. To appointment of experts as necessary;
- c. To have the clerk of court issue subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of records, documents or other objects at hearings;
- d. To have all proceedings transcribed verbatim;
- e. To have any court hearing open to the general public and press, unless the court, for cause, orders a hearing closed;
- f. In all adjudication proceedings to receive adequate notice, to receive discovery as provided in criminal cases, opportunity to be heard, to confront witnesses except in cases in which Title 13 RCW permits the use of hearsay testimony, to findings based solely on evidence presented at the hearing and to have all proceedings heard by an unbiased fact-finder;
- g. To the privilege against self-incrimination;
- h. To testify on my behalf;
- i. To have my lawyer present during any questioning;
- j. To stop answering questions at any time, even though I have started to answer questions, without asking for a lawyer, in that any statement I make may be used at a hearing against me;
- k. To a speedy and public fact-finding hearing in the county where the offense(s) of which I am charged allegedly occurred; and
- l. To be presumed innocent until any accusation is proved by evidence beyond reasonable doubt, or until I decide to enter a plea of guilty.

5. I understand that if I decide to plead guilty, I will have no right to a hearing on any charge to which I plead guilty. All that will remain for the court to do will be to sentence me. I will not be able to appeal the question of my guilt or any charge to which I plead guilty.

6. I understand that if I am held in detention, a criminal charge must be filed against me within 72 hours from the time I am detained (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) or I will be released. I also understand that I have the right to a detention hearing and that the court will make every reasonable effort to hold a detention hearing on my case by the end of the next judicial day,
