

STATE OF WISCONSIN, CIRCUIT COURT, _____ COUNTY

IN THE MATTER OF THE CONDITION OF

Order for Involuntary Medication and Treatment

Name of Subject

Case No. _____

Date of Birth

THE COURT FINDS AND CONCLUDES:

1. The issue of involuntary administration of medication or treatment was considered at a:

- a. probable cause hearing. There is probable cause to believe that medication and treatment will have therapeutic value and will not unreasonably impair the subject's ability to prepare for and participate in future court proceedings.
- b. final hearing. There is probable cause to believe that medication and treatment will have therapeutic value.
- c. hearing on a separate petition. There is probable cause to believe that medication and treatment will have therapeutic value.

2. The subject appeared in person and by counsel.

3. The advantages, disadvantages, and alternatives to medication have been explained to the subject.

4. Due to:

- mental illness,
- developmental disability,
- alcoholism,
- drug dependence,

the subject is not competent to refuse psychotropic medication or treatment because:

- the subject is incapable of expressing an understanding of the advantages and disadvantages of accepting medication or treatment and the alternatives; or,
- the subject is substantially incapable of applying an understanding of the advantages, disadvantages and alternatives to his or her chronic mental illness in order to make an informed choice as to whether to accept or refuse psychotropic medications.

IT IS ORDERED:

Medication and treatment may be administered to the subject, regardless of his or her consent:

- until the final hearing in this matter.
- during the period of commitment, or until further order of the court.
